

ANGELA OF THE ANGELS

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A BACKYARD CHOOK

This is a novella about life in a convent. All the sisters are chooks. Their convent is what others may call a backyard chook run. Angela the protagonist and narrator is hatched in an incubator and spends her formative months in a battery where nutritional experiments are conducted. When these come to an end Angela and some of her companions are sold off. Then another stage of her life begins ... read on...
